Invitation to Industry

The mission of the Meeting is to bring under one roof all of many parts that make up the treatment puzzle – starting from the lab & diagnostics all the way to the pharmacy and clinic. Industry therefore plays a critical role.

We have a long history of productive relationships with industry and we do our best to ensure our industrial partners have the opportunities and support to achieve their objectives.

Here are a few more reasons why you should attend AMRSE2024:

Raise brand awareness on national and international stage: Through sponsorship, you will promote your company as a leading supporter of research, care for key opinion leaders in these therapy areas.

Learn and share: An engaging program of dynamic presentations, workshops and exhibits will enable you to showcase your work and learn about activities of others in research, care and policy all over the world

Face to Face interaction: Through attending and/or exhibiting at the Meeting, you will gain direct access to over 100 delegates and develop high level, long term contacts with them •

Influence change: Discover how global decision makers are changing the face of a particular field through policy change and other exciting initiatives, and how your organization can make a difference.

Make yourself visible: Gain and improve visibility of your company in the audience that matters. As a supporter of the event you will be a part of an extensive promotional campaign of the Research Meeting.
